Mrs. Regina (a.michael007@gmail.com) To: you (Bcc) + 1 more Details

Dear Beneficiary,

This is to inform you about your overdue outstanding Payment which was found on our database record. We saw your E-mail Address in our Central Computer unit among a list of unpaid claims as a beneficiary and have to update your information through this email contact for immediate confirmation. Your E-mail appeared among the beneficiaries who will receive a part-payment of their overdue payment, Credited to an Online Bank ATM Card that was set up for you and it has been approved already.

However we received an email from (Mrs. Elizabeth Obote) who told us that she is your next of kin and that you died in a car accident four months ago. She has also submitted her contact informations to the office department for the delivery of the ATM Card to her as your inheritor. We are required to verify by contacting your email address directly as seen on our Bank record before we can make the delivery to her and for us to conclude confirmation if you are dead or not.

Please, confirm your response immediately to us before we release your ATM Card to her on your name listed out, upon receiving this E-mail notification, I request you to provide us with your full personal information as soon as possible to the ATM Counsellors Office to enable them finalize with the delivery of your ATM Card to you.
